A salute of aerial bombs and a few friends gathered at the station instituted the greeting he received, in compliance with his own wishes.
Later the home folks intend to hold a banquet at which he will be the guest of honor when they will formally welcome him home.
After greeting "the boys" at the station, citizen Cannon was escorted to his home accompanied by his daughter, Miss Helen Cannon, members of his party, and spent a quiet evening chatting with a number of old friends who liked to pay their respects.
"It required considerable fortitude to interrupt the many pleasant friendships I enjoyed at Washington for so many years," he said, "but I am glad to get back to Danville. This is my home and all my domestic interests are centered here. I'm going to enjoy life with the home folks."

Labor Leader Suffering from Influenza and Pneumonia

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 9.—Samuel Gompers, 73 year old, president of the American Federation of Labor, is at Lenox Hill Hospital, this city, suffering from influenza and bronchial pneumonia was learned tonight.
His secretary, W. C. Roberts, announced that Mr. Gompers' physician, Dr. Gustave Fish, reported the patient's condition as serious, his advanced age greatly tending to his recovery.
Mrs. Gompers arrived from Washington today and went at once to her husband's bedside. After a later consultation with her physicians, among them Dr. van Evans, a noted specialist, Dr. Fish announced Mr. Gompers is in no immediate danger, though he is a very sick man. TURKISH REPLY IS HANDLED TO ALLIES AT CONSTANTINOPLE

Moderate Language Used and Suggests
More Negotiating

(By The Associated Press)
CONSTANTINOPLE, March 9.—The Turkish government's reply to the allied proposals arrived here by courier from Ankara this afternoon and was handed to the British, French and Italian commissioners. Copies will also be delivered to the American and Japanese representatives.
The whole note is couched in most moderate language and suggests resumption of the negotiations in some European town preferably Constantinople. The note comprises 115 pages.
The note says there are no fundamental modifications proposed in the political clauses of the draft treaty, Turkey however, desires sovereignty of Casteloriza (off the Southern coast of Asia Minor) and the small islands dependent upon Tencos Island, off the west coast of Asia Minor. She also suggests the Maritza river "thalweg" (lowest points of the valley as the frontier of Thrace, rather the right bank of the river).
Regarding the economic clauses of the treaty the note proposes that Clause 707 to 71 upon which agreement has not been reached should be disjoined from the draft and subsequently discussed.
Part four dealing with communications and sanitary questions is accepted with slight modification.
Part five dealing with prisoners of war is integrally accepted. As regards a regime for foreigners in Turkey the note suggests that the title of this section should read: "Convention of regulations between Turkey and the allied powers and insists on the same prerogatives for Turkish subjects in allied states as for foreigners in Turkey."
The note states that the text of the draft treaty therefore has been modified to avoid any disposition contrary to international practice.

MADRID PAPER "AGIN" PAN AMERICAN SHOW

(By The Associated Press)
MADRID, March 9.—The forthcoming Pan-American congress at Santiago, Chile, is not viewed favorably by El Sol which, in an editorial today says the preparations for the congress are not very promising. The paper asserts the position of the United States is stronger than ever as the poverty of Europe since the war leaves the United States the only nation able to advance the necessary capital for development of South America. It admits the intention of the United States government and people are excellent, but declares the financiers of that country direct its policy for their own purposes with results such as are to be observed in Haiti, the Dominican Republic, Panama, Nicaragua and Mexico.
El Sol asks whether the United States intends to develop rivalry between the various states of South America, such as Peru, Chile, Argentina and Brazil and advises these nations to seek an "entente" among themselves instead of a "kinder" protection of foreign countries.

Patten Talks of Farmer's Position

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 9.—James A. Patten, one of the most conspicuous figures in the grain trades of the United States, discussing today the financial and industrial situation of the country, had this to say about the position of the farmer:
"I believe that the whole question of a continued movement back to general prosperity rests upon a return to a proper relation between the price of farm products and the price of such commodities as the farmer needs to buy. There can be no general prosperity, or even continued class prosperity so long as the purchasing power of the farmer remains low, because of disarrangement of this fundamental economic balance."
"I regard corn as the keystone of the agricultural arch, and fortunately every condition appears present for a price range for the rest of the year that will do much toward restoring the farmer to his position as the greatest single purchasing power in our population."
"The government report yesterday shows that corn supplies are down to an average of the past ten years and are 226,000,000 less than a year ago and 478,000,000 less than two years ago. The question of value depends upon the relationship between supplies and needs and from this standpoint the present situation is most encouraging. Last year we had a supply on March 1, of 1,313,000,000 and on November 1, there was carried over 179,000,000, showing a consumption between March 1 and the new crop of 1,134,000,000 bushels. In 1921 the consumption during the same period was 1,279,000,000. For the past two years therefore, our average corn consumption the great part of which is represented by production of meat, was 1,206,000,000 bushels. Follows that our present corn reserve of 1,087,000,000 is less by 119,000,000 bushels than our actual consumption during the past two years."
"Add to this the fact that we have on hand several million more hogs, and a larger supply of cattle and that it is officially reported the expected spring crop is much larger than in recent years it becomes apparent that there is a prospective urgent demand for corn for feeding. Further, the price of and demand for meat food is increasing with advancing wages and increased industrial employment, insuring an urgent call for the meat that this increased number of cattle and hogs can produce."
"Under these conditions of depleted corn reserves and urgent feeding demand I believe that the working of economic law toward a proper price relationship for farm products and for corn especially, is underway."

DESIRE TO PLAY SQUARE CAUSED ACTION OF FORD

Paid $4,000,000 Balance to Creditors of L.L. Lincoln Company
(By The Associated Press)
DETROIT, Mich., March 9.—A desire to "play square" with those "who have helped to make his industry what it is" even tho some of them have been his business enemies, prompted Henry Ford to pay the balance of the indebtedness of the Lincoln Motor Car company, it was learned authoritatively today from persons close to the manufacturer.
Announcement today that Mr. Ford voluntarily had undertaken to pay approximately $4,000,000 to creditors of the Lincoln company sets a precedent in the business world according to Ralph Stone, president of the Detroit Trust company, receiver for the concern. Mr. Stone pointed out that by the terms of his purchase of the Lincoln company Mr. Ford was under no legal obligation to reimburse its creditors.
The Lincoln company, then in the hands of a receiver, was purchased at auction by Mr. Ford last year. He paid $8,000,000 for the property. After preferred claims were paid there was left for distribution among other creditors the sum of $3,400,000, which amounted to 47 1/2 cents on the dollar. The $4,000,000 being paid by Mr. Ford makes up the difference between the amounts received by the creditors and the sums due them originally. In announcing the settlement today Mr. Stone made known for the first time that Mr. Ford had the first time in mind when he decided to bid for the Lincoln property at the receiver's sale.
The property of the Lincoln company, Mr. Stone said, originally would have brought only $5,000,000 under the auctioneer's hammer, due to its depreciation because of receivership proceedings. Mr. Ford however, bid $3,000,000 and at that time told United States District Judge Arthur Tuttle before whom the sale proceedings were conducted, that he would pay all creditors in full, making the cost of the Lincoln company to him approximately $12,000,000.

DR. ROBERT WATSON FUSSES WITH HAYS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 9.—Dr. Robert Watson, president of the International Reform Bureau in a letter sent today to Will H. Hays, declared, "no one knew I was satisfied with the work you have done in connection with the matter of the picture exhibition except perhaps the men who control you and pay your salary."
"How you are able to reconcile your conscience with your present position I cannot see," said he, adding, "that at present I have no hopes of any betterment of motion pictures coming thru them (Mr. Hays' organizers) or you or by any organization or persons willing to be connected with them or you."
The letter was in reply to one from Mr. Hays in which it was suggested the purposes of Mr. Hays and his associates appeared to be misunderstood by Watson.
"Much of his work, parallels and none runs counter to the purposes," of the International Reform Bureau," Mr. Hays said, requesting an opportunity to acquaint Dr. Watson "actually with what is going on."

LEGISLATURE WILL NOT CURE FARMER'S TROUBLES--CAPPER

Kansas Senator Talks of Legislation for Farmer in Congress

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 9.—Reviewing acts of the last congress affecting agriculture and forecasting probable legislation in the next congress, Senator Capper, Republican, Kansas, chairman of the senate "farm bloc" in a statement today declared, "there is no quick and sure cure for the troubles of the farmer," legislation cannot increase the price of farm products he said but the law which the 67th congress enacted in his opinion will be of material assistance to agricultural interests. Congress erred, Senator Capper contended in failing to accept Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals.
"The country should have the benefit of the peace time operation of this huge enterprise," he said. "Experience has proved that government operation adds heavily to the people's tax burdens. Ford's offer in my judgment was fair and should have been accepted. This question must be decided by the congress."
Declaring that the biggest problem before congress was that relating to transportation the Kansas senator asserted that "freight rates are too high and must come down."

Gives Farm Bloc Credit

The 67th congress started agriculture on its way to a lasting prosperity, Senator Capper declared, listing as "farm bloc measures," which it placed on the statute books the cooperative marketing act, the anti-grain gambling act, the packers and stock yards act, the emergency tariff, the act giving farmers representation on the federal reserve board the filled milk measure the act extending to agriculture aid from the war finance corporation and the farm credit act.
The placing of a "dirt farmer" on the federal reserve board, he stated will "insure the American farmer against ruinous discrimination from which he suffered during the deflation period of 1919 and 1920."
While agriculture and livestock producers were furnishing a reservoir of credit, amounting to $1,000,000,000 the law which revived the war finance corporation.
The packer control act will be tested the senator predicted, as a result of the warning which Secretary Wallace gave the Armour and Morris interests that their proposed merger is in violation of the law.
Creation of two new banking systems, under the farms division together with the law giving farmers the right to form co-operative marketing associations for handling their products, will, in Senator Capper's judgment be of inestimable benefit.

BIG EVAPORATION OF LIQUOR AT SEA

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 9.—Modern perils of the sea, include "evaporation" at least so far as liquor is concerned.
This fact was learned today by the Washington Marine Insurance company in the appellate division of the supreme court when it was denied an appeal from a judgment of $16,542 for the mysterious loss of 467 gallons of Scotch whiskey and 152 bottles and 76 half gallons of brandy aboard the Wakula while it was enroute from New York to Havre in January 1920.
James B. Regan for many years proprietor of the Knickerbocker Hotel obtained the judgment for the loss of the liquor.
The only way he could account for the loss he said, was "evaporation" and he contended that this was one of the "perils" against which the company insured its policy holders.

BIG ARMOUR-MORRIS PACKING MERGER IS VIRTUALLY FINISHED

Consolidation Awaits Only Formal Announcement to Become Effective—Filing of Complaint by Secretary Wallace Will Not Hold Up Deal, It Was Said

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 9.—Merger of the Armour & Company and Morris & Co. packing plants was virtually completed today and the consolidation awaits only formal announcement to become effective, it was announced here tonight when it was learned that arbitrators had fixed on the value of Armour stock to be exchanged as part of the purchase price for the Morris interests.
Announcement of the completion of the merger will probably be made next Tuesday or Wednesday, it was said.
The price agreed on in exchanging the stock will be made public until formal announcement of the merger is made. Earlier in the day it was learned that the merger plans were complete except for agreement on the valuation of stock.

The Morris and Armour interests were unable to agree on this point and it was submitted to Albert H. Wiggin of the Chase Securities Corporation of New York and James B. Forgan of the First National Bank of Chicago for arbitration.
Tonight it was learned that an agreement on stock valuation had been reached at the Florida home of Mr. Forgan where Nelson Morris, head of Morris & Co., and other executives of the packing concerns met.

Filing a complaint against the merger by Secretary Wallace of the department of agriculture will not hold up the deal it was said here today it being expected that the deal will have been completed before hearings on the complaint begin. The packers it is said stand ready to go into court in an effort to prove the merger legal in every respect if this becomes necessary.

CHICAGO WOMEN GRILL RUSSIAN RELIEF SPEAKER

Divide Into Hostile Camps on Question of Recognition

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 9.—A controversy over recognition of Russia by the United States developed among members of the Chicago Woman's Club today following an address by Captain Paxton Hibben, secretary of the American committee for relief of Russian children. Club members divided sharply over the recognition question with the result that the speaker was grilled for nearly two hours by the women after his address was concluded.
"It took Russia five hundred years and a revolution to produce a Trotsky, and it was worth it," Captain Hibben said in reply to one member who asserted that all the intellectuals in Russia have perished during the revolution.
"The fact that a Jew could head the army in 'Holy Russia' where a few years ago Jews were hunted like wild animals is an example in racial and religious tolerance that we in this country might well profit by," Captain Hibben added. In reply to a query as to whether religion were forbidden he asserted Catholic missionaries are in many parts of Russia and three Methodist bishops are in Moscow today.
He defended the right of Russians to sell grain to foreign countries, even if Russians were hungry, asserting that the rights of equal operators in the United States to sell coal to a Canada while people in this country were cold was not questioned.
Trade in Russia is unlimited today, he declared and added that "Russia is suffering from that return to capitalism where the poor are always with us."
"Russians have been willing to pay their foreign debts since February 4, 1919, he said."

PIONEER ADVERTISING AGENCY HEAD DEAD

F. Wayland Ayer Passed Away Recently at Home in Meredith, N. Y.—Was Pioneer in Methods of Advertising.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 9.—F. Wayland Ayer, pioneer of the methods which have made advertising one of the greatest businesses in America, died on the afternoon of March 5 at his country home, Ayrmont, Meriden Farms, Meredith, N. Y., at the age of seventy-five years.

About two weeks ago Mr. Ayer left his Camden, N. J. home for the country on the advice of his physician. A week ago he developed a severe cold which developed into pneumonia. Saturday night his wife, his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred W. Fry, the only surviving relatives, left Philadelphia for his bedside. They were with him when he died at 1:45 o'clock.

News of the event was received with sorrow by hundreds of friends and acquaintances, not only in the firm of N. W. Ayer & Son, Philadelphia, which he founded in 1869, but many others to whom he was endeared by a life of great activity, distinguished for its idealism and ethical integrity.

Not only as an innovator and builder-up of advertising principles was Mr. Ayer known. He was a leader in the state and national affairs of the Baptist church, and held important state and national offices for the Young Men's Christian Association.

Meriden Farms, the place of his death, have made history in the dairy business since he founded them several years ago. As a financier he was largely responsible for building up the Merchants National Bank until it was merged with the First National Bank of Philadelphia which he served as chairman of the board of directors.

Devotes Self to Philanthropy. In recent years Mr. Ayer's activities had been devoted largely to philanthropic purposes. He continued as senior partner of the advertising firm he had founded, but entrusted its conduct to the foundations on which the business had been built and to the tried ability of his partners. One reason for this was his impulse to confront and to master new fields of effort.

Francis Wayland Ayer was born of pioneer New England stock on February 4, 1848, at Lee, Mass. His father, Nathan Wheeler Ayer, was a native of Preston, Conn. The elder Ayer was a scholar and teacher, and directed the early education of his son.

Later Mr. Ayer was himself a teacher in New York state district schools, and spent one year as a student at Rochester University. In 1866 he joined his father in Philadelphia, where the latter then was conducting a school. The same year the son found an opportunity to solicit advertising for a religious publication and a few months later with his father, founder of the firm of N. W. Ayer & Son to conduct an advertising agency. Mr. N. W. Ayer died in 1873 but the business has always borne the name with which it was begun.

Mr. Ayer built for his business a foundation of absolute integrity. He refused lottery advertising and other forms which he considered questionable. His injection of new standards and methods led to the evolution of the advertising business to the high principles on which it is conducted today.

Mr. Ayer lived to see the firm which he founded in 1869 with one employee grow to an organization numbering about 500.

The thoroughness with which information was gathered by the firm of N. W. Ayer & Son, led to the early creation of the "American Newspaper Annual and Directory" now a standard book of reference among newspaper proprietors and advertisers. This was created primarily for the best possible service to advertisers.

Made Advertising History. The improvements in the business of advertising that marked the growth of the house are now part of advertising history, the in many respects the history is current.

Mr. Ayer's connection with religious and philanthropic institutions was of equally long history as his connection with business. He joined the North Baptist church when he moved to Camden in 1869 and soon after became superintendent of the Sunday school, a position he held at the time of his death. He was elected and continued to be for many years president of the New Jersey State Convention of the Baptist church, which under his leadership first employed a paid executive. Later Mr. Ayer was elected president of the Northern Baptist Convention, and remained until his death active in its national plans and activities.

His interest in the Y. M. C. A. was stimulated thru his church connections and in the nineties he led a campaign which resulted in the erection of a fine building for that organization in Camden. He was made president in 1899, and continued to hold that post until recently. The Camden branch leads the state in its lines of endeavor. Mr. Ayer was made chairman of the state executive committee for the association, and for many years was a member of the International Committee, in which capacity he rendered sterling service during the war.

Mr. Ayer on May 5, 1875, married Miss Rhandena Gilman. There were two daughters of this

BE SURE TO ATTEND UNION GOSPEL MEETING

Jacksonville Needs Prayer. It is a fine city in many ways. We know her excellent points. But has it occurred to you that we have so many clubs and concerts and athletic events and social affairs that prayer meetings and Bible study have almost entirely been crowded out? This is only too true! What is the result? We unconsciously became materialists. We emphasize culture far more than spiritual power. We boom community interests that are merely material and financial. We go wild over basketball games and forget that without loyalty to Christ our boys and girls are lost. We spend late hours over contests and neglect teaching our young people how to conquer selfishness. Jesus said "I have overcome the world." If our boys and girls do not know Him, they themselves are overcome.

Here are ten ministers of ten churches trying to keep religion to the front and save the soul of Jacksonville! They are loyal to all worthy interests of the city. Why should not all worthy men be loyal to their religious programs? Why not keep Jacksonville better balanced? Why not give up some social engagements for several weeks and work together to exalt Christ in this city? Let us plead with all lovers of this town to "Seek first the Kingdom of God" and to believe that all lesser benefits will be added to us.

Thomas W. Smith.

Hearings on the bill will begin before a senatorial committee in April. It is probable that the first hearing will be in Peoria. Others will be held in Chicago and possibly in Washington. The members of the engineers' commission will prepare data to oppose the bill and will present their evidence at the senatorial hearing.

The drainage and levee district landowners are opposed to the proposed waterway, partially because it will take more water from the sanitary canal and raise the river level. It is their contention that the waterway if constructed will mean more costly operation of pumping plants in the districts already being maintained, and that future construction work will be more expensive because of the higher levees that would be necessary.

FIRE DAMAGE AT NORTH SIDE BUILDING

Fire was discovered about 10:15 o'clock Friday night in the establishment of the West Side Cleaning Co. in the Park Hotel building on the north side of the square. The fire evidently began in a drying cabinet adjoining the east wall and was communicated to the ceiling above.

The fire department did effective work and the flames were soon extinguished. It was necessary to tear off a portion of the steel ceiling in the room and to cut through the flooring of the room above.

Swift & Abernathy are the proprietors of the establishment and some of their equipment and furnishings were damaged, together with the clothing in the drying cabinet. The proprietors expect to be ready to resume business today.

ROTARIANS PREPARE FOR CONVENTIONS

At the luncheon of the Rotary club at the Pacific Hotel Friday the program was largely in preparation for the coming Rotary convention, the district to be held in Danville and International at St. Louis.

Dr. A. H. Dollear, vice president of the club, presided and as one of the Rotarians who attended an international meeting laid special stress upon the value of spending a few days at the St. Louis convention.

Others who made addresses with reference to the international convention were Henry Frisch, Vincent Riley and Rev. M. L. Pontius. It is necessary to make reservations now for those who expect to attend and that was the reason for the program yesterday.

Dr. H. A. Chapin, chairman of the Danville committee, told of the arrangements made to attend and reported names of 21 Rotarians who have already planned to attend.

Guests of the day were C. Pierce Walsh of Chicago; E. C. Pierce of White Hall and Margaret Caldwell.

GAVE HIM ODD NICKNAME

Oliver Morton Was Long Known Among Colleagues as the "Devil on Two Sticks."

"The Devil on Two Sticks" was a nickname given to Oliver P. Morton, American senator. For many years he was affected by a dangerous and probably incurable disease. He visited Paris for the best medical advice, and submitted to the most drastic treatment. It relieved him considerably, and doubtless prolonged his life, but did not restore the paralyzed legs. He was compelled to use a walking-stick in each hand. In the ordinary course of debate in the senate for the last few years he generally read and spoke in a sitting posture, the courtesy of his brother senators admitting that position. When dealing with questions of national importance he spoke standing, supporting himself against his desk and on one of his canes, but sometimes against a standing support, consisting of an iron standard surmounted by a small wooden reading desk.

During the fierce partisan debate in the senate near the close of the Civil war, and especially while the reconstruction measures were being discussed, he was a stalwart and excessively pugnacious fighter on the Republican side, and earned the appellation of "The Devil on Two Sticks."

BETTER NOT REMOVE MOLE

No Matter What Process Is Employed, Operation Is Likely to Have Grave Results.

Birthmarks are due to an overgrowth of the blood vessels at one spot in the skin. There are two kinds, the raised and the flat. The raised mole is potentially dangerous. The "strawberry mark" as it is called is a reddish raised spot, appearing in the forehead or between the eyes of a new baby. There are several treatments for this, of which the best is radium. It should be removed soon after the appearance, as it leaves practically no scar while the child is still young. Any adult, however, with a strawberry mark which was not removed in infancy may safely undergo the same treatment with success.

Moles are really a form of birthmark and are due to an overgrowth of the pigment-forming cells of the skin. A mole is potentially dangerous. Many dermatologists use the electric needle, radium and freezing on moles, but all of these are dangerous because they may remove only the upper part and stimulate the rest to further growth. This results in the most malignant form of cancer and invariably causes death.—The Delineator.

Sugar Trees.

It has been suggested that in all probability the bears were the first to locate and patronize trees that furnish sugar. The animals break down great branches to obtain the sweet material. The Indians were also in the sugar business. A rare kind of sugar might be had for the gathering from the Douglas fir in the dry belt of British Columbia and eastern part of the state of Washington.

The sugar output from this source varies. That it develops at all seems to be the result of atmospheric conditions. Firs growing on the northern and eastern slopes have proved to be the best sugar producers.

Certain qualities possessed by this tree sugar proclaim it a valuable article in chemistry and in medicine. It is hardly likely, however, that the white man will ever eat fir sugar to any extent, since the supply is limited, and every Douglas fir in the dry belt has more orders than it can fill.

Use of Blotting Paper.

According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, blotting paper is of early date, being mentioned under the date 1465. It was a coarse, gray, un-sized paper, fragments of which have been found among the leaves of fifteenth century accounts where it had been left after being used for blotting. Early in the sixteenth century blotting paper must have been in ordinary use, for it is referred to in W. Horman's "Vulgaria" (dated 1519) as follows: "Blotting paper serveth to dry wet writing, lest there be made blots or burrs." The same authority states it is remarkable that, in spite of the comparatively early date of this invention, sand continued generally in use, and even at the present day continues in several countries in fairly common use as an ink absorbent. There appears to be no record as to who first used blotters.

Preferred the Cash.

Youngsters that come in contact with the public become most worldly-wise. Johnny shined shoes and knew the ways of the world from intimate, and sometimes bitter experience. One day a prosperous-looking old gentleman stepped up into the shine stand. He eyed Johnny with a friendly interest.

"Young man, you look like a bright, intelligent young fellow," he remarked. Johnny looked up at him unimpressed.

"Say, mister," he retorted, "I've had that line pulled on me before. What I want to know before we go any further, is this a cash shine or when I get through will you pat me on the head and tell me I'll be governor some day?"—Kansas City Star.

Polite Posterity. "We must not forget that George Washington was the father of his country," replied Senator Sorghum.

"But so many fathers get a whole lot of kind words and mighty little obedience."

NEW CLEANING PLANT UNDER CONSTRUCTION

J. W. Larson & Co. Soon to Open Modern Cleaning Establishment on Johnson Street—To Maintain Office on South Main Street

Within a few weeks the new cleaning plant now in course of construction by John W. Larson & Co. will be in operation. This exclusive cleaning plant will be established in a building 20x60 feet in general dimensions, located on Johnson street, on property owned by the Powers-Begg Packing Co.

It is desirable to erect such a plant in the suburbs of a city and while all the cleaning work will be done there, an up town office will be maintained at 217 South Main street, in the Vasconcellos building recently occupied by the Prest-O-Lite Co.

Mr. Larson purchased the equipment for the plant two months ago and it is of the most modern type for dry cleaning. An expert with cleaning experience of 17 years has been employed to operate the plant. The processes to be used will guarantee the most satisfactory type of work. In some cleaning processes the unpleasant odor of gasoline attaches to garments for many succeeding hours. This will not be the case at the Larson plant, for as indicated, the equipment is of entirely modern type which guarantees both the cleanliness and satisfactory condition of all garments upon which the process is used.

Delivery will be made by truck and patrons will be guaranteed personally supervised service of a desirable kind.

Ladies of Congregational Church Are Entertained
Members of the Young Woman's Guild of the Congregational church were at home to all the ladies of the church Friday afternoon, the hours being from 4 until 5 o'clock. The church parlors were prettily decorated for the occasion, large baskets of pussy willows bringing a charming suggestion of spring.

After a social afternoon the ladies were invited to the primary room, where daily refreshments were served. The table decorations were suggestive of St. Patrick's day and the same idea was carried out in the refreshments. Mrs. Hackett Wilder and Mrs. W. B. Young, president and vice president of the Guild poured.

The ladies were especially interested in viewing a beautiful new picture which arrived yesterday morning for the primary department. This is a choice colored copy of Le Rolle's "Arrival of the Shepherds," and is the gift of the Guild to the primary department.

Altho the weather was unfavorable.

CLEARING AUTO INN FOR THE BIG SHOW

New Proprietor and Assistants
Busy Last Night—Complete Plans for Big Booster Banquet Monday Evening

The Auto Inn Friday presented a scene of great activity. Mr. Smith, the new proprietor, and his assistants were busily engaged in clearing the huge building of cars and equipment in order to allow the decorators and electricians to commence getting it ready for Auto Show and Merchants' exposition which opens Monday. This work will be out of the way today when the markers will be placed and floor divided into exhibit spaces as reserved. It is expected that exhibitors will begin moving in this afternoon and be finished by Sunday night so that the show will present a finished appearance for the opening Monday.

Applications for space, particularly for the showing of cars and trucks, are still coming in and the committee having this in charge was obliged to turn down several. The need for a large coliseum building in Jacksonville becomes more and more evident with each succeeding year.

Preparations for the annual booster banquet of the auto dealers and exhibitors, to be held Monday evening at the Dunlap hotel, were completed Friday. Several prominent men from out of the city will be present to address the assembled guests. Music during the banquet hour will be furnished by the Warfield Brown orchestra, and Miss Beulah Tull, well known Jacksonville soloist, will give two numbers. Willard Wesner will play her accompaniments.

Following the banquet there will be an address at the Auto Inn by Hon. Frank Sheets, chief engineer of the department of public works, of Springfield, on hard roads and their meaning to the community at large. Other speakers are also expected to take part in this program, which will begin at about 7:45 o'clock and will be of general interest to the public.

Howard Mader was a business caller in the city on Thursday from Winchester.

CATCH FISH WITH POISON

Natives of Borneo Have Peculiar Method of Laying Tolls on the Finny Tribe.

Along the tributary streams of the Rejang river, in the independent state of Sarawak, on the island of Borneo, the native Sedowans and Dyaks have a unique method of taking fish, and one much superior to dynamiting. Near the mouth of a creek a barrier of latticework is erected. In this space is left an opening wide enough to permit the fishes to pass through. After the boats go up the stream, a net is placed across the opening. From 20 to 30 canoes engage in fishing. When the point is reached where operations are to begin, two small dug-outs, which have been towed, are emptied of their liquid contents. This muddy-looking concoction is tuba poison, from the plant coculus indicus. The poison is made by pounding the root to shreds and then mixing with water in certain proportions known to the fishermen. Quick results are obtained in about five minutes stupefied fish begin coming to the surface gasping for breath. The numbers increase with every passing minute. Standing up in their canoes the natives spear the helpless fish with great rapidity. In half an hour the boats are generally filled to capacity. How potent the tuba poison is may be realized by the fact that within half an hour after a few gallons have been poured into a good-sized creek fish a mile and a half downstream are brought to the surface in considerable numbers. Where the tuba poison method is good is that the poison does not kill the fish—only stupefies them temporarily. Thus all not taken for food soon are normal again.

CARVED IN ODD MATERIAL

How Canova, One of the World's Great Masters, Started on the Road to Fame.

Antonio Canova, famous Venetian sculptor, first attracted attention by modeling a lion in butter. When nine years old he was placed in the household of a nobleman. His grandfather, a stonecutter, had taught him the rudiments of carving.

One day the nobleman was giving a state dinner. The chief ornament for the table failed to arrive. The host was in despair. The boy set to work on a huge piece of butter and when the nobleman beheld a molded lion he was well pleased. The result was that Antonio was sent to take lessons in sculpture.

For four years he worked at his art in a cell underneath a monastery. At last he produced a statue which sent the art critics wondering. The Venetian senate sent him to Rome to study when he was twenty-three years old.

He hit upon a new and daring style and for a time every one in Rome scorned it. He worked for 20 years in extreme poverty, but at last his work came to be recognized as that of a master.

Moroccan Girls Marry Early.

In Morocco, as in most Mohammedan countries, the native girls are married at an extremely early age before they are fifteen, and it is not uncommon for them to have been divorced at twenty.

Divorce proceedings in Morocco merely consist of a friendly talk between the woman's husband and her father.

An arrangement is made by which she returns to her parents, the husband often paying compensation to the father. The same woman will probably soon be married again to another Moor, and will take it all as a matter of course.

Moorish weddings are very interesting affairs. The actual ceremony takes place at midnight, but the celebration lasts for some days, particularly in the case of the better class of Moors. The festivities take the form of much feasting, dancing, music and the firing of salutes from the long native rifles. Friends come from all the surrounding districts rigged out in their brightest and best attire.

Well-Named Club for Girls.

A group of high school girls recently entered the office of the father of one of their number, a well-known man and a prominent lawyer.

"Well, young ladies," said the legal gentleman in an affable tone, "what can I do for you today?"

Thereupon the elected spokesman told him that they wanted him to help them select a name for their club.

"It is for the building of character," she said earnestly. "No men are to be admitted at any time. We have no use for men," she added with emphasis.

"Then why not call it the Building and Lone Association?"

Specifications for Biological Glass.

The bureau of standards is collecting information from the army, navy, the biological survey, the public health service and manufacturers of biological products concerning the requirements of glass for this purpose and the desirability of preparing standard specifications covering the same. The bureau has already assisted manufacturers of biological products in obtaining glass suitable for their use, but the request have indicated a possible value for more complete specifications.—Scientific American.

Downfall of the Drama.

An old actor was wont to claim that he had worked with Booth and Barrett, a distinction that got him much consideration wherever Theatricals gathered. When questioned about his parts he would always answer: "I did hoof beats." And then add: "The drama has gone to pot." "Why so?" some of the younger generation would indignantly inquire. "Anyone can do the honks, nowadays."

Clears the Complexion

Can you imagine anything more embarrassing than to have a complexion that is marred with blotches?

It is not only unpleasant—that isn't the worst feature—it means that the blood is impure and the longer you neglect it the more you suffer from annoyance.

Skin eruptions of any description indicate, in every instance, an impoverishment of the blood supply—it isn't pure and you cannot expect it to supply the proper amount of nourishment to the surrounding tissues.

Get at the root of the trouble—cleanse the blood of impurities—stir up the circulation—tone up the digestive fluids and have your food absorbed in the proper manner.

Nyal's Hot Springs Blood Remedy

Strengthens the blood supply—enriches it, cleanses it of impure waste material and thus supplies a foundation for the building of a permanent health.

You will notice a decided improvement with the first few doses—the appetite will be increased, you will feel the blood coursing through your veins and the skin will take on the glow of health.

We recommend it—$1.00 the bottle.

B. B. TOURNAMENT OPENS AT WINCHESTER

Winchester and Bluffs High School Teams Winners of First Two Games.

Winchester, March 9.—The Winchester Community High school basketball tournament opened Friday evening with a large and enthusiastic crowd in attendance in spite of the inclement weather. The first game was that between Chapin and Winchester, the latter taking the game by a score of 17 to 9.

The second game was between the White Hall and Bluffs teams, Bluffs winning by a score of 30 to 11.

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock the second day of the tournament will open with a game between Pearl and Chambersburg. At 2 p. m. Winchester will play Murrayville and then Bluffs will play the winner of the Pearl and Chambersburg game.

PASSAVANT HOSPITAL NOTES

Miss Lillian Havenhill was able to return to her home on State street Thursday after spending several weeks at the hospital.

Mrs. A. L. Litter returned to her home in Sinclair Friday.

Mrs. J. G. Heaton of Lynnhaven left the hospital Friday.

The members of the Training School of Passavant Hospital were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Farrell, at the concert of the Illinois College Chorus and Orchestra, at the High School Thursday evening.

Mr. Farrell is a trustee from State Street Church and has represented that church on the board of trustees since 1906, when the Benevolent Order of Deaconesses of the Protestant Lutheran Church asked the Protestant churches of Jacksonville to assume the management of the hospital.

Miss Stella Treadway, nurse in training, spent two days at her home near Beardstown.

Mrs. Vivian Neil, nurse in training, made a short visit to friends near Decatur.

Mrs. Nola Smith, nurse in training, is spending the week end at her home in Winchester.

Miss Emma Lange, R. N., Surgical Nurse, returned from a week's vacation with relatives in Beardstown.

Mrs. Mae W. Avery, R. N., and Mrs. Mae Wiggins, R. N., supervising nurses, attended the meeting of the 13th District of Graduate Nurses of Illinois, held at Springfield, March 6th.

Miss Anita Prather and Miss Charlotte Haen, graduates of the school, were also in attendance.

The Jacksonville Clinical Association held their regular monthly clinic Thursday morning at Passavant hospital.

A number of interesting cases were presented and operations made. There was an unusually large attendance of members and visiting doctors.

The work of the organization is attracting attention of our neighboring counties, and we understand both Adams and Sangamon counties are planning meetings on similar lines.

Jacksonville is fortunate in having physicians who co-operate in this work so that the two general hospitals as well as all other institutions for the care and treatment of the sick place their facilities at the service of the organization.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Irreguprivate movement, characterized trading in today's stock market, sales falling below the million share mark for the first full session in the last ten days. Public participation in the market was reported as negligible. Marking up of the call money rate to 5 1/2 per cent after an opening rate of 4 1/2 accelerated the usual weekend profit-taking and also encouraged considerable selling for the short account.

American Locomotive was conspicuously strong rising 3 points to 135 1/2 a new high record. Baldwin closed 1c higher at 140 1/2 but the other shares in that group were unable to hold their earlier gains.

Fresh buying power also made its appearance in the oils Condon rising 3 1/2 to 62 1/2. Its best price of the year.

Stromberg Carburetor featured the specialty list with a gain of 3 1/2 points but with the exception of Hupp Motors up 1, all the popular automobile stocks lost ground. Rails moved irregularly within narrow limits.

The time money market was moderately active with 5 1/2 per cent demanded for all maturities.
United States government bonds with the exception of the Victory 4 1/2s which were unchanged lost ground the losses ranging from 1 to 8 on $100.

TO STAGE DEBATES ON LIQUOR PROBLEM

Enforcement of Prohibition Laws to be Subject of Debates Put on by League in Towns in South—May Bring Debaters Here at Early Date.

Rev. George E. Yule of Springfield, district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois, was in the city Friday evening. He has been booking a series of debates in the cities south of here on the question, "Can the Law Be Enforced?" The debates are very vivid and are designed to give the people a clearer insight into the present status of the liquor question.

These debates are put on by representatives of the League. Ralph Owens of Mattoon acts as the business man who asks the question, and Rev. Hudson of Chicago is the state's attorney who answers it.

Rev. Yule was successful in booking debates as follows:

Sunday, March 18, at Kane.
Monday, March 19, at Wrights.
Tuesday, March 20, at Greenfield.

Wednesday, March 21, at Berdan.

Thursday, March 22, at Carrollton.

Friday, March 23, at Eldred.
The debates have already been held at Roodhouse and White Hall, and crowded houses have been in evidence at both places. Pieces of dispatches from various parts of the state where the debates have been held indicate that they were very successful. It is expected to stage the debate in this city in the near future, the no definite arrangements have as yet been made.

The Woman's Club invites the public to hear Gerit A. Beneker speak on "Art as a Constructive Force," at I. O. O. F. Temple, East State, 2:30 this afternoon. Such a privilege should not be overlooked. 35c will be charged non-members.

MERCHANTS COOPERATE WITH THE CHURCHES

Co-operation is the watchword of the hour. So, the merchants feel and so the churches believe. The Ministerial association of Jacksonville, representing ten Protestant churches of the city wish to commend the local business men for their hearty support of the united revival campaign to open next Monday night at Grace Methodist church. By permission of the Chamber of Commerce, they subscribed to the publicity of the revival the full page ads to appear in early issues of the Courier and Journal.

Many others would doubtless have contributed had they been so led. But the needed amount was secured before all should be seen.

The machinery for the campaign is, humanly speaking, ready for operation. What is needed now is the energy to start it and keep it in motion. That must be secured from on High. An effort is being made to secure a place where a noon-day prayer service can be held every day during the campaign for the business people, and the publicity committee requests that all who cannot attend this meeting will devote five minutes every day at the noon hour, to prayer in behalf of the revival.

The following is the list of committees that has the campaign in charge:
Executive Committee—M. L. Pontius, A. P. Howells, W. E. Spooner.
Arnold Lovejoy—Musical director.
Willard Wesner—Organist.
Joseph Breckon—Head usher.
Publicity—T. W. Smith, G. W. Ranrie.
Music—T. H. Tull and W. H. Marbach.
Finance—W. H. Marbach, T. H. Tull, F. E. Bracewell.

Gerrit A. Beneker, who will speak on "Art as a Constructive Force," at the Woman's Club, has a message that will interest you. Hear him at I. O. O. F. Temple, East State, 2:30 this afternoon. Non-members, 35c.
